KEENE'S GREAT COLT COLIN WINS NATIONAL IN A ROMP

Crowd of 25,000 Enthusiasts
Sees Sysonby's Successor in Race.

HE LED ALL THE WAY.

Pagan Bey, at 9 to 1, Captured the Steeplechase Event at Belmont.

(Special to The World)
BELMONT PARK RACE TRACK, June 1.—James H. Keene is certainly the premier and most fortunate turfman in America. His great colt Colin won the National Steeplechase race to-day, worth nearly $25,000, and won in such a manner as to stamp the winner a champion. He met the equals of the 1907 two-year-old division in the "National" and disposed of the others with such ease that it can only be surmised just how good is this mighty son of Pennsylvania.

Keene, on Colin, took the Keene colt to the front and from that move to the last the Keene colt was in hand with the race won at every stage. Big Name was easily second best, finishing seventh after a hard fight with Sunker, King, and Royal Vane fought it out nose and nose for third place. The ring had belonged to the race, the pace going right along, and the finish was a romp, recouping the public for losses sustained by the defeat of Sepoy.

Colin is regarded as the successor of Gatsby, and he deserved the winner of the National Steeplechase of to-day as a wonderful animal. He does not say he is as good as Gatsby, but he is a good horse, and he has the look of "Colin is a great one." That Colin is the best colt seen this year is now without question, and that he is destined to take the place of the great Gatsby is only a question of time.

PENNSYLVANIA WINS IN INTERCOLLEGIATE MEET AT HARVARD

Taylor and Cartnell Win Their Events in Easy Style—Rulon-Miller, of Princeton, Second in 100-Yard Dash.

Cambridge, Mass., June 1.—The final in the intercollegiate athletic meet in track and field championships were reached to-day with Pennsylvania, Yale, Cornell, and University of Michigan fighting for supremacy with strong men in all categories of events after yesterday's elimination trials. The unopposed strength of Yale in the sprints demonstrated the calculations of many of the other aspirants, and the competition as to the outcome which occupied the minds of many of the undergraduates last night. Princeton led Harvard and Harkness in the 100-yard dash, while Cornell was second, followed by Michigan, Pennsylvania, and Yale.

Princeton, on Colin, took the lead from the start, and the race was over.

During the afternoon announcement of the early dismission of the "Ring" three horses were shown in the club-house. It appears that Frank J. Farrell, "Davy" Johnson, and Senator "Big Tim" Sullivan will try to separate the horses from their future owners. The names of their best-known horses will be sold and Martin released from his contract as chief jockey.

Easy for Rosemont.

Rosemont, all the way, Aerobat, a safe second, and Royal Onyx and Golden West fighting it out head and heel for third. The record of the first race here to-day, it was decided, too, in the presence of a great Saturday multitude of race-goers, the crowd at 100,000, was held by Aerobat, $7.00. Radke reversed his tactics on Rosemont, who went to the post a favorite, the jockey taking the colt out for the start, getting a lead which none of the others could overtake. Royal Onyx, too, got a commanding lead over the others, but tired and was beaten, and just lasted long enough to hold the place. Aerobat ran stoutly in the stretch, getting the second mark for his entry.

Three Home Together.

Up from the Madison Stable, was the medium weight, and the second in the race, the colt price being forced down from $12 in some books to $10 at the close. The contemplated coup just now being made, just now, was heads by Aerobat, Royal Onyx. It was a pretty finish, a wheel would have covered the three. Cohort was played to win in a narrow, the other day, and Rosemont has been running for several days. The three were played heavily. Sepoy, the Keene representative, was a well and popularly played favorite, but he was beaten, and Pagan Bey, Miller, and Hartford Boy and Goshen Star were left at the post. In no race in which he has started has Hartford Boy been beaten, and with him "Father Bill" Daly was offered $10,000 for Hartford Boy last February and refused. The colt was then known as the "Sycamore of the Boulevard."

Run Takes a Turn.

Pagan Bey won a remarkable race over the jump in the International Steeplechase, being second to take the last jump to Mr. Keene, then appearing on the track. On the last jump he outdistanced Mr. McCann and won easily at the end. Falahane was third after making all the running. California was the rest of the field.

Hartford Stable fell and Ray, the rider, escaped all but a severe shaking up. McCann took off in the running after the jump, and despite his efforts at the flat running game, E. Hester on the winner, rode amazingly well. T. Martin was scratched.

Dolly Spanker Is Lasted.

Miller and Dolly Spanker were the winning combination in the mile handicap, but was only by a close finish that the pair got home in front. In about four miles, Dolly Spanker won in the stretch under wrens. Then when this horse appeared to be winning easily Tiling on the rail home on gamely and in the closing strides of the race she beat Miller. Spanker out. Sir Tiddington was third. Dolly Spanker was an odds-on choice.

Rainie Searches the Ring.

Paul Rainey and his friends cleaned up the ring, the running race of the day. He started the night with a grand show, and well ridden by the apprentice lad Medicott, the colt romped home an easy winner. He ran in third position, and then went to the front and at the end won the gallant Bright Boy finished second and Rio Grande third. The weight of the money in the ring drove Glenham's price of 4 to 1 to 3 to 1.

POLO GRUNDS.

AMERICAN LEAGUE GROUNDS, BOSTON, Mass., June 1.—Foolish weather conditions brought an enormous crowd to see the Highlanders and Boston teams go at the second game of the series to-day. Griffith, always a big favorite here because of his activity in getting the ball, looked smilingly on the bleachers that stretch to the right and left of the pavilion and couldn't find a place to sit. In the 2,200 seats that were occupied, there was baseball weather in this city, and hundreds of women were out with their escorts in the grand stand.

First Inning.

Dahlen threw out Alperman. Casey singled over second. Lumley flied to Seymour. Batch's crack forced Casey at second. Corcoran to Dahlen. NO RITES.

Maloney misjudged Shannon's fly to left and it was safe for two bases. Browne was passed. Shannon stole third. Dahlen forced Browne. Lewis singled. Dahlen flied to Alperman. Howerman sent a high fly to Ritter. ONE RUN.

Second Inning.

Dahlen threw out Lumley. Corcoran made a nice stop of Maloney's hot grounder and threw him out. The wind took Lewis' fly away from Seymour, and he was safe. Butler smashed to right for two bases. Lewis scoring. Scanlon struck out.

ONE RUN.

Scanlon sent a long fly to Maloney. Scanlon was out. Lumley, Dahlen, Corcoran smashed a two-hopper to left. McGinnity struck out. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Alperman singled to left. Casey was safe on a wild pitch for two bases. Both runners advancing, Corcoran bunted. Batch's roller and he was safe. Alperman and Casey scoring. Batch was now stealing. Dahlen to right. Dahlen. Howerman singled to right and scored. Corcoran threw out Maloney. TWO RUNS.

Shannon walked and went to third as Dahlen flied to right. Corcoran, who was a wild pitcher, took for Alperman at second. Lumley was safe on a wild pitch, both runners advancing. Corcoran bunted.
